

Pamela D. Langston-Cox is currently the Vice-Chair and Chair Elect for the Chicago Federal Executive Board. Since 2001, Pamela has served as the Area Counsel of the General Legal Services Division, Office of Chief Counsel, Department of the Treasury, Chicago. In addition to her many years of work in non-profit management and administration, Pamela has over 30 years of federal service in the Office of Chief Counsel as an attorney and Area Counsel. As head of the Chicago regional office, Pamela is responsible for supervising a staff that covers a seven-state area, as well as nation-wide issues and cases, for the IRS and Chief Counsel offices. In October 2011, Pamela was appointed by the Chief Counsel to the Deputy Managing Counsel position for her POD as part of the Chief Counsel's matrix management structure, which has responsibility for all cross-divisional issues. In that position, she helps to facilitate the sharing of resources, emergency management coordination and preparation, recruiting, and employee recognition. In February 2018, she was elevated to Managing Counsel, which includes serving as the IRS Commissioner's Representative for the POD.

Pamela has contributed over fourteen years of service with the Chicago Federal Executive Board. In addition to assisting with many events and activities prior to becoming Vice-Chair in October 2018, Pamela's major involvement in serving the FEB began as a member of the Diversity Advisory Council (DAC) in 2002. She served on the DAC throughout its existence, including as its Vice-Chair for two years, as the DAC Chair for over four years, and, as Chair Emeritus effective January 2013. After joining the Executive Committee, Pamela offered to take the leadership of coordinating the Chicago FEB's Shared Neutral ADR Program (SNAP) in February 2017, overseeing the assignment and execution of shared mediation services across the Chicago federal community.

Pamela is a member of FEW, ASPA, the NITA Foundation, and has served since 2003 on the Federal Sector Advisory Board for the Chicago-Kent College of Law's Institute for Law and the Workplace, contributing to the development of the annual training event (including designing and delivering courses). Over the span of her career, Pamela has been called upon nationally to develop and teach courses across the country, often collaborating with several other agencies in the process; this has included labor law sessions for the FDR, National QUAD, and National HIRE Conferences; the Public Administration Forum, AIM, Government Training Institute, and the Navy; and multi-federal agency management, personnel and labor relations staffs.

Pamela received her B.A., M.A., and J.D. from the University of Akron, where she was also a member of the faculty in Theatre and Communications, and coached the forensics, moot court, and trial teams.
