

BIOGRAPHY

GSA Federal Acquisition Service

Kim Brown

Regional Commissioner, Great Lakes Region

Kim Brown is the GSA Federal Acquisition Service (FAS) regional commissioner (RC) for the Great Lakes Region (R5), which supports federal agencies in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, and Wisconsin. As RC, Brown oversees all regional operations to deliver comprehensive solutions for the Department of Defense and civilian agencies.

Brown has held a variety of positions during her 32-year career with GSA, most recently serving as the assistant commissioner (AC) for the FAS Office of Customer and Stakeholder Engagement (CASE). Prior to that, she was director of the Acquisitions Operations Division, responsible for the planning and administration of all FAS regional contracting functions and as acting regional marketing manager. Brown began her GSA career as a transportation operations specialist in Fleet Management before spending 15 years in the Contract Management Division.

Brown is a 2007 graduate of the Partnership for Public Service, Excellence in Government Fellows Program. She earned an MBA. from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management and a B.S. in education and social policy (with a major in organizational behavior), also from Northwestern University.

06-09-2021